August 25, 2015 (Toronto, ON) – They've been making a strong mark on the Canadian country music scene; between the release of their debut album, a cross Canada-tour and their very first CCMA Award nomination (Interactive Artist of the Year), these sisters are proving to be unstoppable. Now, Victoria sister-duo Twin Kennedy is getting ready to turn it up another notch and release their second single "Feels Like Freedom" on September 4, 2015.

From their debut LP It's a Love Thing, produced by multiple award-winning artist George Canyon and Graham Sharkey, "Feels Like Freedom" is the perfect follow up to the album's title track. With the majority of the sisters' debut year spent on the road performing shows and visiting radio stations across the country, the feeling of freedom on an open road is tried and true for this duo.

By sharing their journey with fans, the endless hours on the road or in the studio, Twin Kennedy has achieved their greatest milestone yet – their very first CCMA Award nomination for Interactive Artist of the Year. In celebration of this nomination, the girls are hosting "Rise and Shine – A Morning of Music with Ladies of Canadian Country"; an event taking place during Country Music Week in Halifax, presented by Homewood Suites by Hilton® Halifax-Downtown and Hampton Inn by Hilton™ Halifax-Downtown. This event isn't just celebrating the duo's success, but the success of the amazing women that make up the Canadian country music industry. Taking place on Saturday, September 12 at 10:00am, Twin Kennedy, along with some very special guests (Lindsay Broughton, Tenille, Trinity Bradshaw and Livy Jeanne), will be performing at 1960 Brunswick Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Halifax and the CCMA Awards are just one small stop for what is bound to be a vivacious fall for the sisters. With 18 confirmed dates, starting in the east coast and making their way back home to the west, Twin Kennedy is embarking on the fall leg of their It's a Love Thing Tour. Fans are encouraged to keep following the sisters' social platforms and website for all tour and single updates.
