Recorded between sessions at both Nashville's Sound Emporium and Vancouver's Warehouse Studio, "Blindspot" was produced by Nashville based, Canadian producer Dustin Olyan and Twin Kennedy themselves. The track comes to life with some of the industry's most talented session players including Derek Wells (CMA Guitar Player of the Year), Mark Hill (Reba McEntire, Keith Urban), Billy Nobel (Tim McGraw) and Shawn Fichter (Tim McGraw, Faith Hill). Opening with Carli's gentle guitar strums and Julie's delicate fiddle strokes, "Blindspot" is a heart-swelling ballad with its raw emotions felt through the duo's crystalline vocals. Shot and directed by Dave Wallace of Riptide Studios, the upcoming "Blindspot" video matches the elegance of Twin Kennedy's harmonies with its beautiful visuals of Vancouver Island's Sombrio Beach as well as the duo's hometown of Sooke, BC.

On the new track, Twin Kennedy notes: "Blindspot is about being in a relationship where you don't feel seen. It's so important to know your own worth and to surround yourself with people who make you feel valued. Love yourself and choose to be with people who would never put you in their blindspot."

"Blindspot" marks the duo's first new release since their 2017 album A Twin Kennedy Christmas. Currently based in Nashville, the duo has made themselves a staple in the country music scene in both the US & Canada over the past four years, having toured extensively throughout both countries. With three CCMA Award nominations, thirteen BCCMA noms, two Vancouver Island Music awards, two John Lennon Songwriting Award wins under their belts, and most recently the 2019 Independent Music Award for Best Holiday Song, Twin Kennedy have built a strong acclaim since their debut release It's a Love Thing in 2015.
