July 16, 2015 (Toronto, ON) – With multiple milestones hit in 2015, the Victoria, BC sister duo Twin Kennedy have earned their biggest accomplishment yet – a 2015 CCMA Award nomination for Interactive Artist of the Year. With their debut album It's a Love Thing released earlier this year, this is the first CCMA Award nomination for the sisters.

“There are no words to describe how thrilled we are to receive our first ever CCMA Award nomination,” the twins beamed. “We are honoured to be recognized in a category with such an incredible group of Canadian artists, and we are so thankful for our amazing fans and friends who interact with us and make us smile every day on social media!”

Connecting with fans is a number one priority for the duo – constantly updating their Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook pages, Twin Kennedy ensures their followers never miss a beat with what is happening on tour, in the studio, and throughout their day-to-day life.

With the 2015 #CCMAAnomday announcement yesterday, there is no doubt that the coming days will see an outburst of celebration on all platforms. Currently in the midst of their summer tour, be sure to continue following these ladies for further updates surrounding their CCMA Award nomination and future tour dates.
