DUO ANNOUNCE THE HOMEBOUND TOUR

February 20, 2020 (Toronto, ON) - With roots planted firmly on both sides of the border, Canadian born-Nashville based country duo Twin Kennedy are headed Homebound no matter which direction they travel. Having that theme direct their career since their 2015 debut, the duo are excited to announce the release of their new EP Homebound, slated to drop May 22, 2020. Ahead of the release Twin Kennedy will set out on a North American acoustic tour, which will bring them home to their small town of Powell River, BC to celebrate the album release.

"Homebound is a collection of 6 songs to remind you of home," explain the sisters. "To us, home means love, family, security, peace and happy memories. We wrote these songs about losing love, finding love, missing home and finding our way home."

Cultivating the perfect sound that is uniquely Twin Kennedy, the album was recorded between four different studios, The Warehouse Studio, The Tone Distillery, Sound Emporium Studios, The Shoebox and was produced by Nashville based, Canadian producer Dustin Olyan, along with Twin Kennedy themselves. From heart-swelling ballads filled with raw emotions & crystalline vocals such as “Blindspot” and “Ghost Town” to upbeat, joyful ditties, such as “Little Life” and “Call It Love”, the six-track collection showcases the versatile and dynamic style of Twin Kennedy’s songwriting, including an empowered duet with rising Canadian artist Mallory Johnson on “Wise Woman”.

“This release truly feels like we have found our sound - a blend of our country roots and our classical roots, a mix of our love for both mainstream music and acoustic/traditional music, and a true representation of us as artists and storytellers. Unlike some of our past recordings which were done starting with band tracking sessions, a lot of these songs were built from the ground up, starting out with the core of who we are - vocals, acoustic guitar and fiddle, and building from there.”

The first collection Twin Kennedy has released since their 2017 album A Twin Kennedy Christmas, the duo has made themselves a staple in the country music scene in both the US & Canada over the past five years, having toured extensively throughout both countries. With three CCMA Award nominations, thirteen BCCMA noms, two Vancouver Island Music awards, two John Lennon Songwriting Award wins under their belts, and most recently the 2019 Independent Music Award for Best Holiday Song, Twin Kennedy have built a strong acclaim since their debut release It's a Love Thing in 2015 and are continuing to grow.

With the album available for pre-order and tickets for The Homebound Tour on sale, special fan presale bundles are now available, which include an exclusive early physical copy of Homebound signed by Twin Kennedy, an "I'm Homebound" tote bag, "I'm Homebound" luggage tag, two TK pins, and a personalized postcard from Twin Kennedy.
